

Willowbrook Organic Farms 2024 Flying Fifteen Championship of the British Isles Strangford Lough Yacht Club 19th to 22nd June 2024

SLYC is situated in Whiterock Bay, close to Killinchy and has unparalleled access to Strangford Lough, the premier location in Northern Ireland for sailing and boating. The Club hosted the UKFFA British Isles & Classic Championship in 2018 and are excited to be welcoming the Flying Fifteen fleet back again in 2024.

This year's events lead sponsor is Willowbrook Organic Farms. John McCann MBE, the managing director, is a former National World Champion and New Zealand Champion Flying Fifteen sailor.

Accommodation

is best booked through Airbnb. The following accommodation can be booked directly, www.ballydornstay.com and www.traceysfarmhousekitchen.com.

There is public parking for camper vans ½ mile from the club on a first come basis.

Stena Line Group Travel

I am happy to confirm we have set up a 10% discount (before fees/dues) for competitors wishing to travel by car, motorhome in the month of June on our Irish Sea routes in 2024.

Please only release codes to party members attending your event. All travel which is undertaken utilising these codes will be closely monitored to ensure correct usage.

Those wishing to book simply go to stenaline.co.uk/event/club-login or stenaline.ie/event/club-login and enter their:

First Name: Surname: Event Number: J624R

We will have a full social programme, with catering included each night as part of the entry fee and we look forward to welcoming you to Strangford Lough

Roger Chamberlain
Sailing Captain

Contact details: office@slyc.co.uk

www.slyc.co.uk